

THE PARADE

1958

Dearest Cousin,
Kid there is so much I would like to say, I really don't know where to begin. I guess I'll start with the time you chased me around the house and turned me over your knee and gave me the spanking of my life, I can still feel that last wag.
On the time we had my birth day party (16) down at your lake and so many kid came we couldn't move and the time we went to Elvasta and you ducked me till I thought I'd pop or the time we double dated and had so much fun cutting up or the fun at the Hops club dance when I went for my first time and how much fun we had over at my house painting or the time we went mule back riding and you were sow for a week or the time we rode Pat's horses and he nearly brushed you off at the apple trees.
I could go on & on for hours
till that first summer
I came up when you fell off the porch & chipped your knee bone. Yes, cuz we have sure shared some great times
Be good to Pat, Kid & I'll see ya next year. (I guess). Be a good boy! (mean, pardon me).
& don't beat your wife
Love ya, your cousin, Grown

*All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts.*

DEDICATION

She is a good teacher. She inspires in her pupils the desire to improve. We do the tasks she assigns, not merely to please her, but because she has somehow made us believe that we will become more useful and desirable citizens for having done our best in her class. She is efficient and thorough in her own work, and she inspires efficiency and thoroughness in us.

She is a popular teacher, but no one says she is "easy." Only when we have done our best does she praise us. Therefore, her praise is cherished by those of us who have received it.

She is our friend. When we were in her civics classes, as freshmen, her sympathetic advice always proved most helpful. As seniors, we have learned to depend on her sincere and wise counsel.

So, with admiration, gratitude, and love, we dedicate the 1958 PARADE to our teacher and our friend, MRS. KATHERINE GOSS.

PRINCIPAL

MR. E. L. JUSTUS

A.B., University of North Carolina
M.A., Columbia University
Principal

Ask any student of Flat Rock High School, new or old, what he thinks of Mr. Justus, and that student will immediately begin to tell you what Mr. Justus has done for him.

If every student was given the opportunity to write her or his feelings for our principal, we would perhaps, in our combined efforts, have a worthy speech of praise and gratitude for our devoted counselor and friend, Mr. Justus.

FACULTY

We appreciate and respect our teachers and the high calling to which they have responded.

SENIORS

If all the world's a stage and all of us are players, then life must be a drama. In this drama, as in all others, there are poor performances, mediocre performances, and excellent performances. The players who give the excellent performances are the stars.

Some people might say that the actor who possesses the most inborn talent will be the star, yet we all know that even the greatest cannot do his best without training. Training is what the 1958 Seniors have been getting for the past four years. It has gradually changed them from amateurs to professionals. They are now approaching the end of their apprenticeship and each may choose the part he or she wishes to play.

Senior, what kind of performance are you going to give?

Judging by their accomplishments here in high school, we believe we can safely say that they will give the best performances they are capable of giving. The class of '58 may even produce some "greats." For instance:

There are many who have been capable leaders during these four years. From this, we deduct that we have potential leaders of our country in the class. Who knows, Jere Hyder, this year's Student Body President, or Jerry Guice, Senior Class President, may someday be President of the United States.

We have several who have done outstanding scholastic work. There is no reason to believe that they will stop using their intelligence to the best advantage. Could not Jean Osteen, Wayne Hill, or Shirley Dennis use their ability in some way for the betterment of mankind?

All the Seniors are alert and active, hoping for a better tomorrow, and willing to work for it. Yes, we believe they will give great performances!

As they take their places on the stage, look to the Seniors of Flat Rock High School, 1958.

SENIOR

The movie industry annually presents Oscars to people who are voted the best in their field.

The seniors do not award Oscars, but here are those voted "the best" or "the most" by the Class of '58.

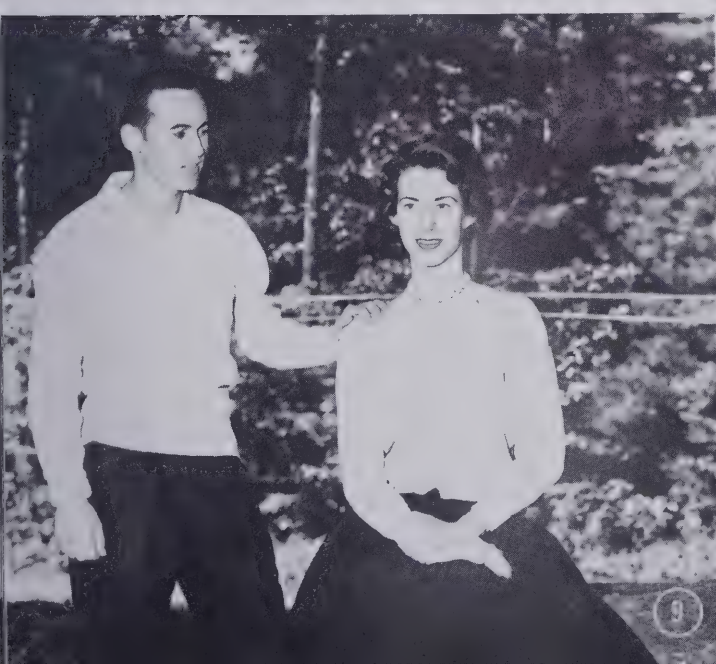

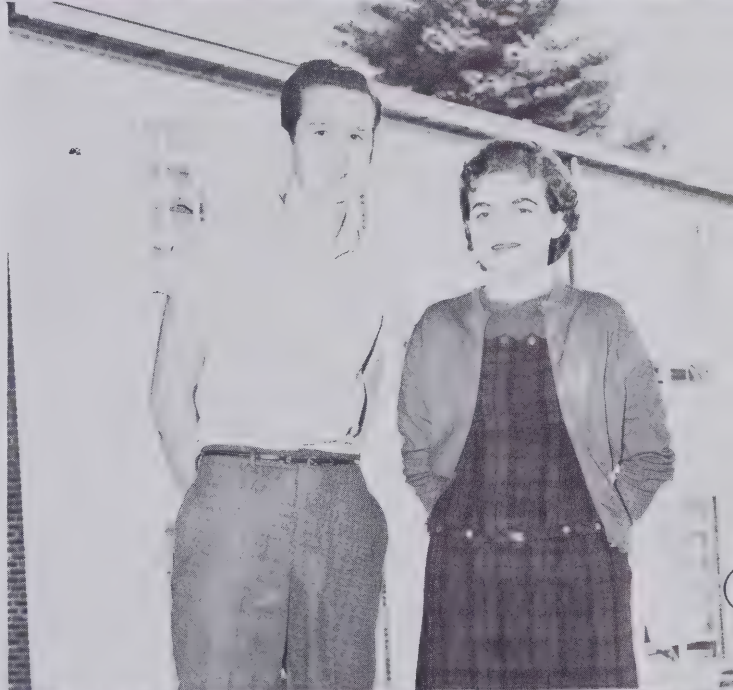

The superlatives pictured on these pages are 1. Most Popular, Norma Huggins and Rex McCrary; 2. Cutest, Linda Lockaby and Herman Barnwell; 3. Most Intellectual, Jean Osteen and Best Personality, Brenda Fowler and Jimmy McAbee.

JUNIORS

The Juniors are V.I.P.'s—very important people. They manage the Snack Bar and publish the school newspaper (quite naturally receiving the profits from both).

The juniors are well represented in all activities and organizations here at school. In the spring, part of the money which has been earned by the sweat of their brow is spent to give a beautiful Junior-Senior.

We are proud of this group which has contributed so much to every phase of school life at Flat Rock.

SOPHOMORES

Into the spotlight step the sophomores of '58. The majority of these students have already chosen whether they will take a college preparatory course or a business course. They are well on their way toward their goal and though they are working hard, they still have fun.

Several of the tenth grade girls are on the cheerleading squad and the sophomores have also furnished us with several notable basketball players. Besides the above mentioned, there are many other talents represented in this class. From all appearances the sophomores are going places.

What idea is most widely associated with the term "Freshmen"? A good synonym of the word is beginners. The people who come under this classification may not agree that it is an appropriate word, though ("After all, you can hardly call someone who has been in school for nine years a beginner!".)

Still, the freshmen are beginners. They are beginning life in a new realm — the realm of high school, and they are beginning to change. These changes may take many forms, but the most important one they are beginning to make is the one from a child to an adult. This change is made evident by the fact that they begin to take courses which will prepare them for the life they hope to have as an adult. The girls may take home economics and the boy who plans to be an engineer may begin his mathematical career in the first year algebra class.

EIGHTH GRADE

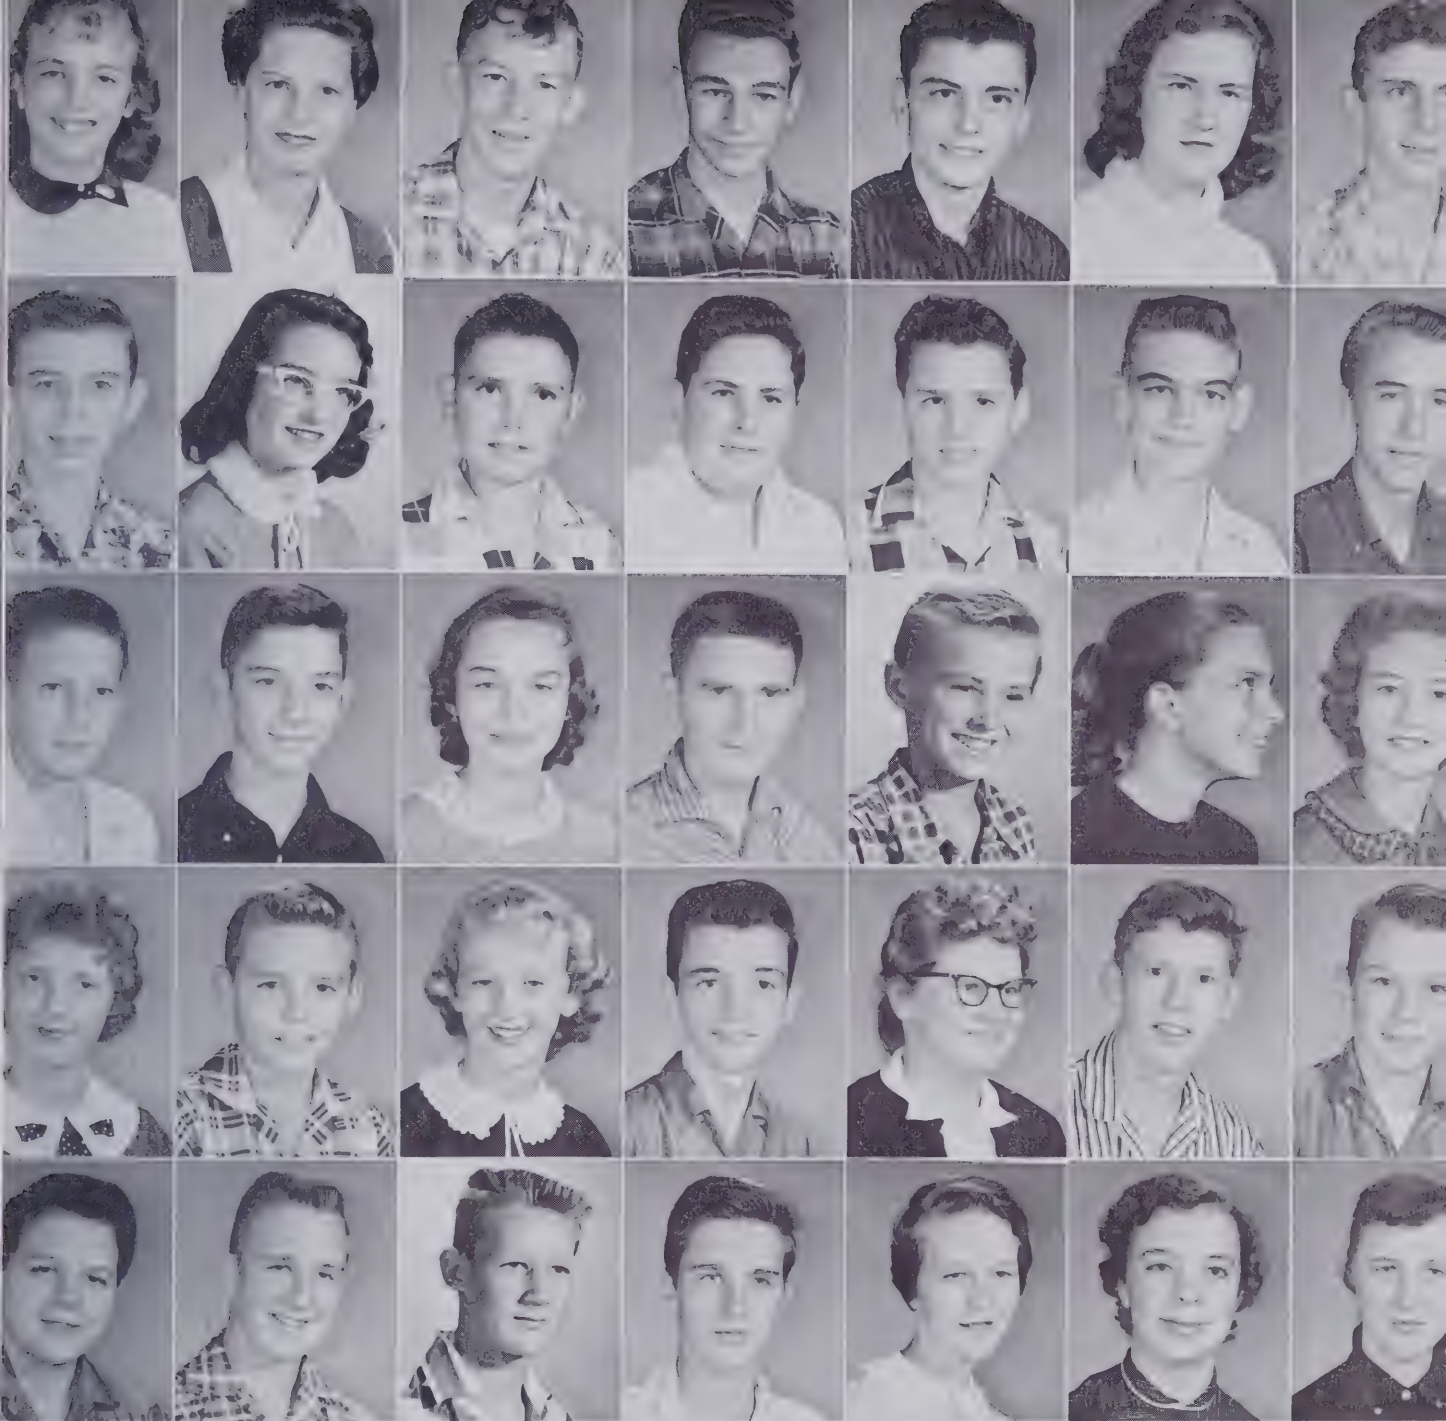

This year we have a smaller eighth grade — only one home room of thirty-eight pupils.

These students undoubtedly feel one of two ways: that they are standing at the brink of a fathomless pit into which they will inevitably fall next year, or that they are at the foot of a steep slope which they will begin to climb at the end of this nine months.

We hope that the latter feeling belongs to the majority of them because those of us who have come further realize that the goal is certainly not impossible and that the struggle to reach the top is actually just as important as the conquest of the peak.

If we are allowed to offer one word of advice to you, eighth graders, we'll say this: Remember, high school is a precipice to be scaled and the secret to the success of mastering this mountain is diligence.

The Class Officers are: (seated) Ronald Brooks, president; and Patricia Sitton, secretary-treasurer, and (standing) Edward Griffin, vice-president.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The weekly meeting of the Student Council is held on Mondays at the activity period. During these meetings such regular business as Grounds Committee reports and the appointment of hall and Snack Bar area monitors is attended to. The Student Council is headed by the student body officers who have been elected at the end of the previous year by a majority vote of the student body. This year's officers are Jere Hyder, president; Scott Ward, vice-president; and Norma Huggins, secretary-treasurer.

Presidents and vice-presidents of classes, home rooms, and clubs are included in the membership of the organization.

Editorial Staff

The PARADE staff has two main divisions—the business staff and the editorial staff. Each group has its own work to do and each is essential.

The first of the duties of the editorial staff is that of choosing the theme. Then they must think of ways to carry it out. The individual editors see to the arrangement of the book, the writing of the copy, and the making of pictures. After they have accomplished these tasks, they work together in assembling the parts of the book.

Elizabeth Warlick, assistant art editor; Norma Huggins, literary editor.

Business Staff

We sell our yearbook below the cost of publication and in order to prevent a loss on the part of the school, it is the job of the business staff to provide this extra money through the selling of advertisements to business establishments in our area. The business manager sells the students their subscriptions to the PARADE. Almost every one of the books is sold before the date of arrival. The business staff is also in charge of the distribution of the annual.

There is a great deal of responsibility placed upon each member of the PARADE staff. If it were otherwise, in all probability there would be no Flat Rock annual. Because everyone has fulfilled his responsibilities with just a little push from Mr. Kilpatrick, the sponsor, we feel that we have an excellent book this year.

Malvern West and Jere Hyder selling an ad to Mr. John Sinclair.

Jere Hyder business manager, and Mr. Hudson, sponsor of business staff.

BETA CLUB

Left to right: Mrs. Crawford, sponsor; Joyce Hyder, secretary-treasurer, Norma Huggins, president; Thomas George, vice-president.

Students at Flat Rock are honored by an invitation to join the National Beta Club. Invitations are extended to members of the Junior and Senior classes who have maintained a 90 average in all subjects throughout high school, and are approved by the faculty.

Meetings are held on the second Wednesday of every month.

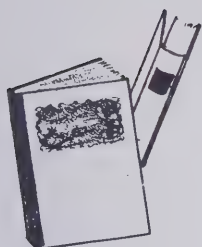

The purpose of the organization is to promote ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among the students, to reward meritorious achievement, and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school.

Mrs. Crawford, the sponsor, puts the Beta Club motto to good example—"Let us lead by serving others."

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Sandra Jones; Mr. Kilpatrick, librarian; Alice Barnwell.

At their own convenience, any time during the school day, students may check books in or out of the library. Without the services of the library assistants this would be impossible.

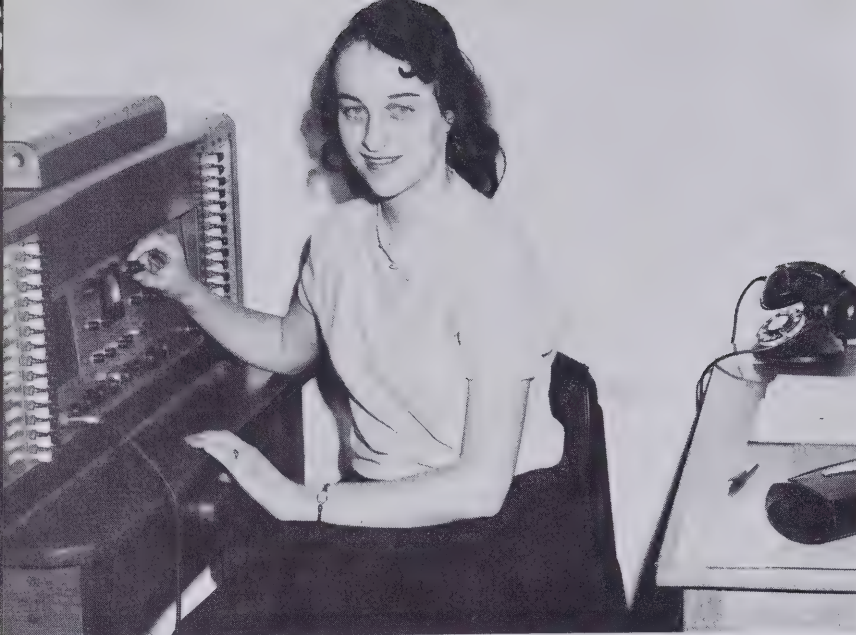

As records are essential in library work, the assistants are always on hand to stamp dates in books and to file cards. They prepare overdue-book notices and then collect the fees when they are turned in.

Thank you, library assistants.

Elaine Connor using the "inter-com" to give a message to one of the teachers.

It's not just a private opinion that the school couldn't get along without our voluntary receptionists.

The girls who belong to this club devote several of their free periods each week to answering the office telephone, taking messages, typing absence lists, putting up teachers' mail, and trying in many small ways to make Mr. Justus' day smoother.

RECEPTIONIST CLUB

GLEE CLUB

Mrs. Nickell provided the students who are musically inclined with a pleasant surprise when she agreed to direct a Glee Club this year.

At the first meeting, there was such a large number of people present that Mrs. Nickell had to have auditions in order to get the group down to a workable size.

The programs and musical numbers presented by the Glee Club have been greatly enjoyed.

Officers are: Linda Lockaby, secretary; Scott Ward, Vice President; Mrs. Nickell, Director; Brenda Fowler, President; Norma Huggins, Librarian.

F. H. A.

To join the Future Homemakers of America, one semester of home economics is required. This is a reasonable requirement, for one of the main purposes of the club is to further interest in home economics.

Many worthwhile goals have been established for the year and will be gained under the efficient and faithful direction of the sponsor, Mrs. Davidson, and the president, Jean Osteen.

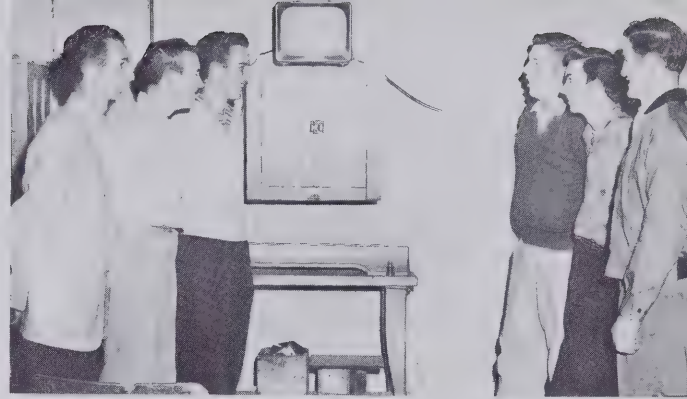

On the list of this year's activities, we find a Mother-Daughter Banquet, numerous rallies, a leadership workshop, recognition for individual achievement, a picnic, a wide variety of programs throughout the year, and a play.

F. F. A.

If a boy plans someday to own and operate a farm, the Future Farmers of America is the club for him.

This year the F.F.A. boys have been very busy. By selling a specified number of subscriptions to a farm magazine, they won for themselves a television set. All the world series enthusiasts around school benefited from their initiative.

Mr. Franklin, sponsor, helps each member to realize his duty of becoming a worthy citizen and a better-than-average farmer.

The abbreviation F.T.A. stands for the Future Teachers of America. This is a national organization, our local club being named the Della Garren Chapter. The purpose of this club is to acquaint the members with the problems as well as the rewards of teaching. Development of good character and leadership ability is stressed.

A project of the F.T.A. for the year is caring for any children which parents might bring to P.T.A. meetings.

First row, back to front: Virginia Hollingsworth, Elaine Corne, Alice Barnwell, Marie Laughter, Patsy Orr. Second row: Denver Beddingfield, Paula Bishop, Betty Sue Summey, Carolyn Sluder, Marguerite Young, Betsy Jackson. Third row: Brenda Fowler, Penny Drake, Janice Kuykendall, Jeannette Drake, Wanda Connor, Janice Davis.

Our school newspaper, The Rocket, is written and edited by the junior class. The editorial staff is composed of boys only. Nelson Engle, Jimmy Buckner, Scott Ward, Malvern West and Nolan Engle are editor-in-chief, assistant editor, copy editor, sports editor, and art editor, respectively. These are assisted by a large group of girls and boys who have assigned duties.

With the help of Mrs. Semaschko and Mrs. Brown they have succeeded in producing an outstanding monthly publication. It performs a service for the students by informing them of school news and activities and other items of interest. Each issue is eagerly anticipated.

CARNIVAL CANDIDATES

The key to the aura of excitement surrounding the Halloween Carnival lies in the election of the Carnival King and Queen.

The candidates, chosen by their classes, gave each other vigorous competition, but on Halloween, with beautiful ceremony, L. C. Baynard was crowned king and JoAnn Pressley was crowned queen.

For several years, the Beta Club has been electing a girl . . . not just any girl, but the very "cream of the crop" . . . to the title of Miss Hi Miss.

Winthrop College recognizes our girls along with others from all over North Carolina and South Carolina in an issue of The Johnsonian.

We do not feel that that recognition is in itself the honor. Every year, the people called upon to choose the honoree have made it a point to get the best. That is why we are proud of Jean Osteen, Miss Hi Miss of Flat Rock High School, 1958.

HONOR STUDENTS

ATHLETICS

In the minds of the students at Flat Rock, sports get A-1 ratings. Those who take the physical education class and many others who do not are active participants in the athletic program of the school. The sports offered include softball, volleyball, tether ball, ping pong, football, and teams in baseball and basketball.

Mr. Rogers, with the assistance of Mrs. Nickell and Mrs. Brown, coaches and counsels all would-be athletes.

BASEBALL TEAM

After students at Flat Rock have seen the first robin, they get the usual spring fever and with it comes baseball fever. They begin to search for their activities outside. Where do you suppose their search leads them? To the baseball field, of course, where the Flat Rock nine will be indulging in the "National Pastime," and (we hope) adding a long list of victories over other county teams to our record.

Norman Corn and Robert Orr get a few pointers from Mr. Rogers.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Last year our girls' basketball team was composed almost entirely of new players. Only one member of that team was lost by graduation, so this year we have a more experienced team. Some new players have also been added. We have enough of the old to feel secure and enough of the new to bring fresh vitality to the game.

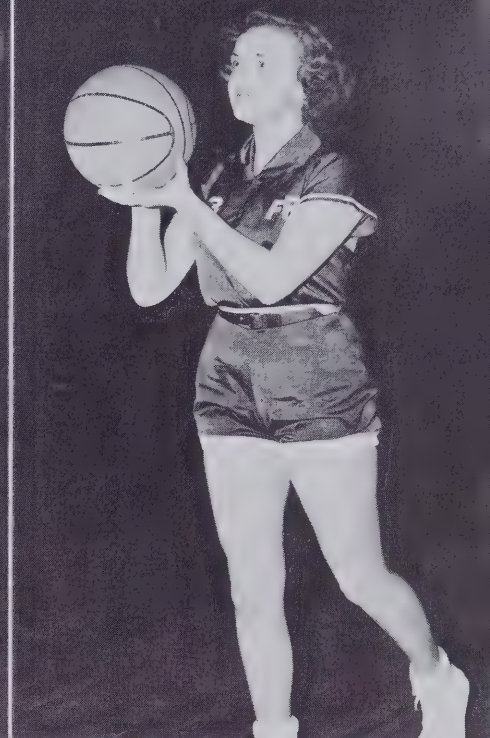

We enjoy the lively games immensely on Tuesday and Friday nights throughout the winter.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

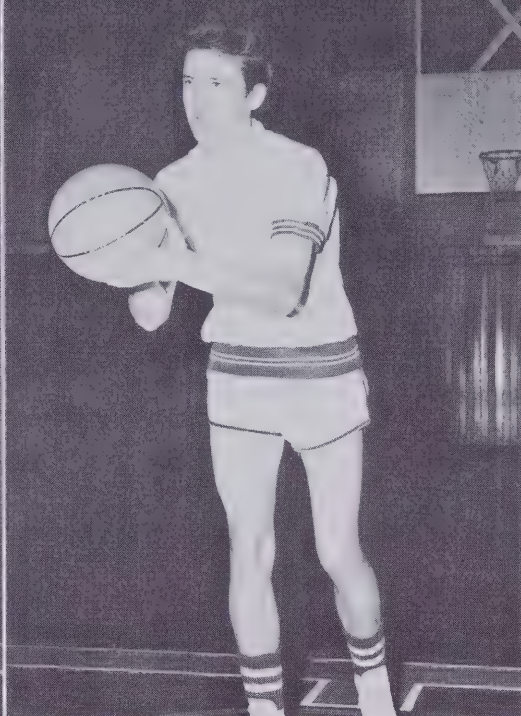

This year Flat Rock begins playing in the Double A Class. Now we are facing teams from much larger schools than we have been accustomed to playing. Our confidence in the Blue Devils has not been shaken by this step into a larger division, because they have already proved that they can competently handle these teams.

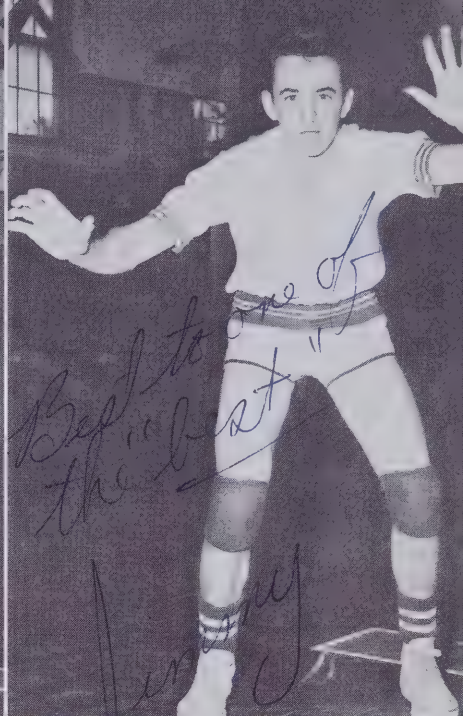

The school especially appreciates the co-operation our boys have shown and we pledge our support to them.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleading team is a great asset to the Blue Devils. To the unobservant they may seem to be just a group of pretty girls with energy and exuberance. While they are leading cheers at the ballgames and pep meetings, they are actually doing more than yelling and doing rhythmic routines. They are promoting school spirit and unifying the spectators' support for the teams.
